GREETINGS FROM THE CCM VILLAGE!

I couldn’t be more proud to be both an alumnus and the Dean of this great school. I am also proud to inaugurate CCM’s new communication vehicle: The Village News. It is through this electronic portal that we will share news of CCM’s remarkable faculty, students, alumni, friends and benefactors. Each of you views CCM through your own lens, and whatever your given perspective, you are aware of how CCM has transformed the lives of our students for well over a century. The Village News is all about sharing these transformational stories. I hope you will share these stories with a friend and I hope you will share your own stories with us. Stay connected to the school that will continue to transform the performing and media arts for many, many years to come. Welcome to The Village News!
