GINO JAMES DIMARIO MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

Gino DiMario was four-and-a-half years old when he began taking lessons in the CCM Preparatory Department’s Suzuki Piano program. Gino loved music and his activities here at CCM Preparatory. He died tragically on February 19, 2005 after performing in his first CCM Concerto Competition. In his memory, a scholarship fund has been created. The fund is intended to award students who show the determination, commitment and creativity that Gino embodied.

This year, up to six awards in the amount of $500 each will be awarded to CCM Preparatory music students. The guidelines are as follows:

- Each student must complete the application form and essay.
- Only students who participated in the May, 2012 Achievement Music Festival are eligible to apply.
- Students must be regular private music students at CCM Preparatory Department.
- Winners will be expected to perform on the October 28, 2012 DiMario Memorial Scholarship Recital.
- Students who receive a DiMario Scholarship must wait a year before reapplying for the scholarship.
- Only pre-college students are eligible.
- A committee will determine the scholarship recipients. There may be up to six awards, but not necessarily two from each category. All students must complete the essay, application and attach a teacher recommendation form. All materials must be received by September 29, 2012. Award is in the form of tuition credit on the current bill and can only be used for music lessons. The credit is only for the 2012-2013 academic year.
- If a student withdraws during the school year, they will be expected to pay back the scholarship award.
- Announcements of the awards will be made by October 8, 2012.
