CCM Prep and the CSO present
March 1-2, 2013  Adult Chamber Music Weekend

Adult musicians looking for an opportunity to play chamber music with their peers shouldn’t miss this special event, presented by the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music Preparatory Department in cooperation with the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra Community Engagement Program Friday and Saturday, March 1-2, 2013.

How it works: Sessions will take place at CCM. Participants will be placed in groups of three or more to expand their repertoire, receive coaching from professionals and broaden their musical palette. CCM Preparatory faculty and Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra musicians will lead the sessions. Early registrants may ask to be put in ensembles ahead of time to allow more practice time and a greater choice of repertoire. Participants receive a discount for tickets to the CSO March 2 performance of Schubert’s Symphony No. 9.

Cost: $125 ($100 for individuals who study privately at CCM Preparatory) plus $30 for CSO ticket (optional)

To register: Complete the registration form at ccm.uc.edu/prep by Feb. 1, 2013, and tell us about yourself. We’ll place you in an appropriate group and mail music to you prior to the workshop. For information, phone 513-556-2595 or go online to ccm.uc.edu/prep.

This program has been made possible through the generosity of ACMP – The Chamber Music Network
