I arrived at CCM as a nerdy trombonist from Indiana. When I left with my Music History degree in hand (still nerdy but with slightly better fashion sense), I was four years away from being appointed the Executive Director of the internationally-renowned Parsons Dance Company in New York City. Quite literally, I wouldn’t be where I am today—or possess any shred of fashion sense—without CCM.

CCM introduced me to world-class artistry from every performance discipline, incredibly talented faculty, generous alumni, and senior-level executives who were masters of their craft and have become lifelong mentors and friends. CCM prepared me to not only discuss the finer points of opera history, but gave me a practical introduction to arts administration and access to people who could guide me along the way.

TIM CYNOVA

Tim Cynova is the Deputy Director of Fractured Atlas. Prior to joining Fractured Atlas, he served as the Executive Director of The Parsons Dance Company and of High 5 Tickets to the Arts. Before moving to New York, Tim worked for the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, the Association for the Advancement of Arts Education, and the University of Cincinnati’s College-Conservatory of Music. In his relative free time, he co-hosts #SKYNOVA: The only Internet TV program featuring culture warriors in their native habitat. He holds a degree in Music History from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music and a Certificate in Global Affairs from New York University.

Tim is married to Angel Cynova who is also a CCM alum—BFA ’99 Ballet.

DIANA MARIA RIVA

Diana Maria Riva starred on The Good Guys on FOX with Bradley Whitford and Collin Hanks. She currently appears on both The Bridge and Saint George on FX. Recent film credits include Short Term 12, Love and Mercy with Paul Giamatti and John Cusack, and McFarland with Kevin Costner. Other film credits include What Women Want, Our Family Wedding, and 17 Again. Television credits include Side Order of Life, Studio 60 on the Sunset Strip, The West Wing, CSI, Everybody Loves Raymond, and NYPD Blue.

Since graduating Ms. Riva has returned each year to work with CCM drama students on campus. When students and alumni are in Los Angeles she provides guidance in the business including scenes, type and showcasing.

When Diana comes to school and does a master class our students love this. Then, when we go to Los Angeles with our drama showcase, she hosts the rehearsal at her house. And the best part... She gives the most amazing, detailed and insightful notes. She pours her wisdom and experience into these actors and they are always significantly better for it. So, she gives and GIVES!

As a professor, she has taught at The Jacobs School of Music, Indiana University, CCM’s Opera Theatre and Music Festival and Spoleto in Italy along with the Round Top International Festival Institute in Texas. Recently she retired as professor emerita with The Shepherd School of Music at Rice University where she performed regularly with the Houston Grand Opera, Symphony and Ballet.

She has served as President and on the Board of Directors of the International Women’s Brass Conference and is currently on the Board of the Classical Music Hall of Fame. She is also a member of the International Trumpet Guild, Sigma Alpha Iota, Pi Kappa Lambda and Cincinnati MacDowell Society and has won many awards and honors.

Professor Emerita, created an endowed trumpet scholarship

As first generation Italian-Americans with limited education and means, my parents were extremely supportive of my desire to pursue a career in music and were determined to give me every opportunity to succeed. To this day, I am in awe and so very grateful for their extraordinary commitment to ensure I had a better life than the one they had.

It is with that spirit, dedication and selfless devotion that I have chosen to name an endowed scholarship in trumpet in loving memory of my parents, Mary and Salvatore Speziale.

JOHN HARRISON

Friends of CCM Board Member, founded The CCM Harmony Fund: Challenging Hate and Prejudice through Performing Arts

The Harmony Fund was created as both an acknowledgement of the continuing existence of hate and prejudice within this civilized world and, more importantly, the ability of the arts to help us better understand and transcend these emotions. It seems most important that students and the faculty that guide them should be able, through the arts, to study and learn from the past and present, and to maintain an ongoing open dialogue regarding challenging issues.

The Harmony Fund was initially founded in memory of my partner of many years. Its continuing purpose is to fund opportunities that might not otherwise find sponsorship support.

JOHN HARRISON

John Harrison is the founder of The CCM Harmony Fund: Challenging Hate and Prejudice through Performing Arts. The arts are truly a language that all people speak; they cut across racial, cultural, social, educational and economic barriers. The CCM Harmony Fund was established to celebrate the language of the arts, encourage conversation and advocate compassion. The fund supports our incredibly talented students and faculty at the College-Conservatory of Music in the media and performing arts in creative and unique ways to promote culturally diverse audiences, and fight hate and prejudice.

Last year two unique projects were supported—Fellow Travelers through the program Opera Fusion: New Works and a commissioned piece for the Cincinnati Children’s Choir, When Day is Done.

While John is one of the most respected interior designers in Cincinnati, he is equally well-known for his volunteer work for area philanthropic and arts organizations.
