DEGREES OFFERED

Master of Music in Jazz Studies

For the advanced jazz student or the professional jazz artist seeking further study in performance, arranging, composition, and research. The MM also provides the academic credentials required for college teaching. The program focuses on advanced concepts in improvisation, styles and analysis, jazz pedagogy, composing and arranging, and jazz history.

Other Graduate Degrees

Many of the Master of Music and Doctoral Degrees at CCM offer the possibility of a Cognate (minor) in Jazz Studies.
Other degrees may offer the possibility of electives in the jazz area.

QUALIFICATIONS

Applicants must demonstrate a high level of performance and/or writing ability in the jazz idiom.
For assistantships, teaching experience is desirable but not required.

DUTIES

Depending on the qualifications of the applicant, duties may include coaching jazz combos, directing a big band, teaching improvisation, arranging, or secondary jazz piano, supervision of the Jazz Music Library, the Jazz Recordings Library, or the Jazz Computer and Recording Studio, office work, equipment supervision, sound reinforcement and recording, and assisting the 10 jazz faculty members.

APPLICATIONS

Review of applications for scholarships and assistantships will begin at the first CCM on-site audition in January/February, 2016. They will be considered until all awards have been offered and accepted.
